

Advancing the COMMON GOOD

United Way is working to advance the common good by focusing on education, income and health. These are the building blocks for a good life—a quality education that leads to a stable job, enough income to support a family through retirement, and good health.

Our goal is to create long-lasting changes that prevent problems from happening in the first place.

OUR COMMUNITY IMPACT AGENDA:

Tools for Financial Stability

- » Helping working families achieve the financial stability that leads to independence

Preparing Children for Success

- » Preparing children for kindergarten
- » Improving reading skills among third-graders
- » Preparing foster youth for independent adulthood

Safety Net for Basic Human Needs

- » Providing access to short-term emergency assistance through an annual agency grant process

Community Linkage

- » Ensuring residents are able to identify and access services in a timely manner
- » Engaging residents in community service

We invite you to be part of the change. Together, united, we can inspire hope and create opportunities for a better tomorrow. That's what it means to LIVE UNITED.

BE PART OF IMPROVING THE

OVERVIEW

The Emerging Leaders are community oriented professionals who want to expand their business and social networks, further develop their skills and talents and make a significant community impact.

MISSION

Engage and cultivate young, professional, influential UWKC leadership givers in community investment, professional development and social networking opportunities.

CRITERIA

- Must be between 21-40 years of age
 - Must be a United Way of Kern County individual Leadership Giver, donating at least $500 annually
- or
- Must give a “Family Contribution” of $750 per household annually (limit two memberships per contribution)
- or
- Members also have the Fast Track option of giving $300 the first year and $500 each consecutive year

United Way creates opportunities by focusing on the building blocks for a good life: income, education, and health. Join the Emerging Leaders and surround yourself with other young professionals who are creating lasting change right here in Kern County!

LEAD.

Become part of your community’s next generation to lead the way. Get to know your peers at networking, sporting and cultural events put on by, and exclusively for, Emerging Leaders members.

SERVE.

Make a local impact by participating in community service opportunities with United Way of Kern County and partnering agencies. Work side-by-side with community members in events like the Annual Day of Caring, addressing the needs of our community.

GROW.

Take part in individual and professional development opportunities. Learn more about our community, and train for leadership roles and nonprofit board positions.
